Happy Independence Day!

Art of the Month:

The Works of Andy Thomas

“Grand Ol’ Gang”

Limited and Open Editions In a Variety of Sizes Available

“True Blues”

Many call Andy “The Storyteller”, and if you have ever had the chance to see his work you might just agree. He tells many stories, especially in his political portraits and action-filled western art that brings cowboys back to life.

In the past, Andy has painted many subjects from American History... a picnic by the river, kids playing sports, and brutal bear fights. All of his paintings end up telling us some kind of story about our past, and we never know what he’s going to show us next.

We have lots more to see from Andy. Be sure to ask about his work next time you come to visit!

Deal of the Month:

It's Christmas in July!
Let's celebrate with
25% Off The Works of Lorna Sanders

At Christmastime Lorna had given us the gift of discounting her pieces for our wonderful customers. The sale was such a HUGE hit that we've decided to bring it back for our "Christmas in July" Special. Lorna is a local artist that incorporates mixed media with acrylics to create unique texture in her pieces. She also builds and paints her frames by hand, so they are actually just as original as the work within. We have a fun selection to share for the summer. Be sure to come in and see us while the deal is HOT!
